Issue Date: May 27, 2020

This Privacy Policy (policy) discloses the privacy practices for AVATLabs.com and applies only to information collected by this website.

If you feel that we are not abiding by the privacy Policy, you should contact us immediately by email or telephone from the contact information listed on the website

Policy brief & purpose

This policy describes the information collected from you through the website, how it is used and with whom it may be shared. This policy informs you of the choices available in regards to the use of your data; the security procedures that are in place to protect your information; and how you can correct any inaccuracies in the contained information.

This policy is susceptible to changes. If so, we will update the policy and make notice on the website as soon as possible.

Scope

This policy applies to anyone who navigates to and around the website.

Policy elements

Below are the outlined elements of the policy and how website visitors can protect their information.

Information Collection, Use and Sharing:

We are the sole owners of the information collected on this website. We only have access to and collect information that you voluntarily give us by email, forms submitted by you from the website, or other direct contact from you. We will not sell or rent this information at anytime to anyone.

We will use your information to respond to you, regarding the reason you contacted us. We will not share your information with any third party outside our organization, other than as necessary to fulfill your request, such as fulfilling an order. We are obligated to share your information with lawful agencies and/or related regulatory agencies, upon request, in which case we will notify you of such action.

Unless you ask us not to, we may contact you in the future by U.S. mail, email, or phone to inform you of such things, but not limited to, specials or new services.

Your Access To and Control Over Information:

You may opt out of any future contact from us at any time. You can do this by contacting us by U.S. mail, email, or phone from the contact information listed on the website.

You also may ask for the following from us at any time by contacting us by U.S. mail, email, or phone from the contact information listed on the website:

- See what data, if any, we have about you
- Change or correct any data we have about you
- Delete any data we have about you
- Express any concerns you have over the use of your data

Security:

We take precautions to protect your information. When you submit secure and/or sensitive information (information) through our website, your information is protected both online and offline.

When we collect secure information such as credit card data, that information is encrypted and transmitted to us in a secure way. This can be verified by a lock icon in the address bar or by seeing "https" at the beginning of the address of the web page.

While we use encryption to protect secure information transmitted online, we also protect your information offline. Only employees who need this secure information to perform a specific job, such as billing or customer service, are granted access to this information. The computers and servers where information about you is stored are kept in a secure environment.
